This is a multi-line entry at the bottom
This can contain more than 1 line of text and be scrolled around to allow for entering of lots of content. It is also to test to see that autoscroll moves to the right part of a larger multi-line text entry that is inside of a scroller than can be scrolled around, thus changing the expected position as well as cursor changes updating auto-scroll when it is enabled.